

Librarian's Report 3/4/19

- Upcoming programs:
 - Jenni will be hosting Teen Tech Week programs on March 8 & 9
 - The Library will host a golf hole and scavenger hunt for the Mancos Melt on March 16.
 - Night photography program will be March 14 @ 7 pm
 - Open Sky Wilderness Therapy will present on March 7 @ 7 pm as part of the Businesses in Our Backyard series.
 - Rimrock Outfitters will present March 28 @ 7 pm as part of the Businesses in Our Backyard series.
 - Death Café will be on March 21 @ 5:30 pm.
- The Mancos FoodShare has secured funding for our lunch program throughout the summer.
- Julie is busy planning the Summer Reading Program.
- Tax forms have arrived and are available in the library for patrons to take.
- Kathy Graf will be presenting on "Passive Programming" at the CLiC Spring Workshops in Grand Junction, Fort Morgan and Pueblo.
- Year-end appeal donations are still trickling in... so far, it has garnered $8,595!
- New book order is in, Kathy will begin cataloging these after our vendor works out a few bugs from the migration to the new circulation system (occurred over the weekend). 160 new books for adults!
- Pricing for Kanopy was very affordable, however, it was suggested that we also give Hoopla a trial to compare. It's a little more expensive, but also includes audiobooks and music. Please check it out and let me know any feedback.
