

Librarian's Report
7/1/19
Lee Hallberg, Executive Director

- Upcoming programs:
 - Death Café will meet July 25 18 @ 5:30 pm
 - Summer Reading program continues, over 300 books read! Programs will continue through July.
 - Trivia Nights at the Brewery (1st & 3rd Wednesdays) continues...
- Sand Painting workshop with Benton Yazzie was extremely popular and very well received by all participants. Shari was sure to give the Friends hi accolades for supporting the event, thank you!!
- Silent Auction benefiting the library at Outlier Cellars on July 27, 5:30 – 9:30 pm, Friends are encouraged to attend and advocate.
- Jenni is organizing a “Rolling Brigade” with the kids for the Mancos Days Parade, still need more tots to come ride!
- The library is now the host of the Mancos Food Pantry, folks in need can come and take food and community members are encouraged to stock the pantry with non-perishables.
- Mancos FoodShare continues serving free lunches to kiddos on the library porch on Tues, Wed. & Thurs.
- The Board of Trustees will be meeting on July 3 to review (and hopefully approve) the new Strategic Plan. If approved, the plan will be presented to the FOL at the next meeting.
- MCHM was a big success and a great time was had by all. Dana and Kim are tallying all the results and waiting for a few sponsorship checks to roll in. A full report will be available by next meeting. Thank you Friends for all your hard work!
- Library staff will have a retreat on July 30 facilitated by Eli Shostak, a Strengths Deployment Inventory certified trainer. Will the Friends pay for the training? $1,320 for training, $250 for facilities & food (Hesperus Camp)