

Librarian's Report
02/03/20
Lee Hallberg, Executive Director

- Upcoming programs:
 - Youth Programs
 - Storytime continues on Thursdays @ 10:30 am.
 - Healthy Gaming, for 8 years and older, is held after school every 2nd Friday.
 - Science Friday continues every week.
 - Julie continues to host Storytime at the Preschool.
 - Lego Club continues on Fridays.
 - Teen Programs
 - Geeks & Gamers 17+, for mature gamers, takes place every 1st Saturday from 2 to 5pm.
 - Teen Game Night, exclusively for teens, continues every 3rd Friday from 7 to 10pm.
 - Adult Programs
 - Great Decisions will start for the year on February 12, Wednesday mornings every other week
 - Death Café will continue on 3rd Thursday of each month at 5:30.
 - Jenn Paschal will present about her Cranial Sacral Massage business on 1/30 at 7 pm.
 - Midge is hosting an afternoon tea / meet and greet with Fran Pearlmutter, WWII Veteran and Decoder on Jan. 9 @ 2:30 pm
 - Chuck Greaves will come and host a discussion on his book "Church of the Graveyard Saints" on Feb. 27 @ 7 pm as part of the One Book / Four Corners initiative.
- Census 2020 is just around the corner (April 1 is Census day, online self-reporting will start March 12), libraries are a partner in helping complete the census online.
- Annual appeal has garnered approximately $9,500 in donations for the library. Thank you!
- Half Marathon registrations are now open, the Friends have donated $100 (via KoKo). Thank you!
- Midge has started a library newsletter, available on line and at the front desk. February's will be available soon!
- New books are hitting the shelves, next order will be in April.
- Website has been upgraded and content will be updated soon. New site goes "live" tonight!